

8Foot Felix

Combining inspired theatrics and musical prowess, 8Foot Felix reveal a treasure chest of infectious ditties that blend blues-inspired sea shanties with gypsy polka and piratical funk. Clearly evident at their live shows, the members of 8FF are an eclectic bunch of multi-talented entertainers. Singer, keyboardist and chief composer Will Tait, delivers tantalising melodies and a poetic rolling lyric. Ably supported by the enigmatic chanteuse Susie Hopkins, the double bass of Jamie McElhinney and the horns of Brendan Jones (trumpet) and Tom Starr (french horn), the band is rhythmically bonded by the beats of Steve Turnock.

Officially launching in May 2011, 8Foot Felix have ignited audiences around Australia, the USA and in Central America. The launch of the band's debut studio EP, "Captain's Log" was a sellout success in October 2012, and sparked another wave of interest. This paved the way for a frenzy of high-profile summer festival dates, including Eclipse 2012 in North Queensland and a headline slot on the Playground Stage at Rainbow Serpent Festival 2013.

Embarking on a UK tour in July, 8Foot Felix are set to play amongst some of the biggest names in the business. Look out for the Felix, soon setting dance floors ablaze near you!
